Matters About Town.

ALTHOUGH there is universal satisfaction over the fact that the old wooden buildings on the Fink corner are to disappear, and a handsome church edifice take their place, yet with it regret is expressed that it is not to be a good hotel building, instead. It is hoped this matter will assume definite shape this season. We are convinced the means can be raised, if some one interested will take the lead and push it

IT was a very difficult matter to make anything like a complete and accurate statement and estimate of the damage done by the tornado. The writer spent one of the veterans of the late was has a good part of two days tramping through the streets and alleys gathering up data, and consulted with gentlemen who were active in looking up the damage and helping their neighbors, and, considering everything, thought be had done his work with a reasonale degree of completeness; but, not withstanding a few instances estimates too low. Robert Anderson suffered damage to buildings and fences that will require, probably, $200 to repair. J. W. Nichols' dwelling was damaged, field, Buchanan and New Castle Presbyhe thinks to the extent of $50.

Underneath these scabs the skin was raw, like a piece of bsefsteak; gradually the hair came out and was destroyed, until but a small patch was left at the back of the head. My friends in Peabody know how my little boy has suffered; at night he could scratch his head until his pillow was covered with blood; I used to the his hands behind him, and in many ways tried to prevent his scratching; but it was no use, he would scratch. I took him to the hospital and to the best physicians in Peobody without success; about this time some friends who had been cured by the Cuticura Remedies prevailed upon me to try them; I began to use them on the 15th members who held over, handed in his resignation, which was accepted.
